3 Bedroom, 2.00 Bathroom, 1,046 sqft

Residential on 0.14 Acres

NONE, Didsbury, Alberta

Here we have a terrific home that has been enjoyed by the current owners for 44 years! It is time for a new family to appreciate all it has to offer. This home was built in 1964 when things were solidly constructed. That being said, the sellers have done a major kitchen upgrade including beautiful oak cabinetry, quartz countertops and built-in china cabinet. The large living features original hardwood floors and a wood burning fireplace (log lighter not connected). The primary bedroom has built in cabinetry on the one wall as well as another closet. There is a cozy flex room (that used to be a bedroom) currently used as a T.V. room and has patio doors leading to the covered rear deck with Duradek floor and complete with a natural gas BBQ that stays with the property. The basement is older development but very functional with a large family room, bedroom, 3 piece bath and laundry/storage room. There is LED lighting throughout the home, newer vinyl windows throughout the main floor and central air conditioning for those hot summer days! The detached garage is oversized (24 X 28) so lots of room for your vehicles and a workshop area. It also boasts an overhead heater and 220V wiring. All of this on a nice sized fenced lot with plenty of space to run around. Enjoy the established neighborhood, call your realtor of choice today!
